Roadmap

Intro duction

TRONRich is committed to creating one of the most popular decentralized game platforms in TRON ecosystem, while empowering developers with its own technological capabilities. Users can experience the fairness and openness of blockchain investment, as well as the excitement and fun of various decentralized games through TRONRich platform. Developers can quickly master the ability to launch DAPP through TRONRich open platform, using our mature API.

Every user, every developer, will experience the decentralized thinking and creation brought by TRONRich. At the same time, TRONRich will promote the integration of resources within TRON ecology, combining the multi-dimensional ecosystems such as blockchain explorer, wallet, DAPP, to create one-stop service to promote the development of TRON ecology.

Why TRON

We considered which MainChain to be used as the R & D platform for TRONRich from 4 aspects

User base

As of March 31, 2019, TRON has more than 2.3 million registered addresses and more than 4.2 million daily transactions, making it the fastest growing MainChain. It also has the most streamlined process of creating a wallet. Its low threshold has attracted a large number of users to use and support TRON. Therefore, TRON's user base has great advantages.

Liquidity

TRX (TRON network-based cryptocurrency) has been launched on more than 100 exchanges around the world. The market value of the public chain tokens has remained at the top of the list, and the daily transaction volume is as high as 60 million US dollars. It is undoubtedly in a leading position in terms of user acceptance and liquidity.

Network Speed

TRON's network peak can reach nearly 2000 TPS (number of transactions per second), and its performance will continue to improve as TRON's technology advances.

Transfer fee

TRON provides 5,000 bandwidths and energy per address free of charge per day, allowing about 25 free transactions. Users can get more bandwidth resources by freezing TRX. With the combined cost being negligible, it can be considered the public chain with the lowest transaction fees.

Therefore, the TRON network, with its highest user acceptance, affordability and performance, became the MainChain of game development.

The bonus will be accumulated normally into the dividends pool in the first month, and the divs will be opened in one month.
